Headmaster's Message

I congratulate you, the members of the Class of 1993, for your successful completion of the rigorous course of study at the Boston Latin School. The education you have received at Boston Latin School will provide you with the knowledge and understanding needed for future success. The long hard road through the Latin School which you have traversed has helped you acquire the self-discipline needed to overcome any obstacle which you may face in the future. You must continue to further your education and become a worthy and contributing member of our society. You have the opportunity and means to make a constructive contribution to the improvement of mankind. You will not, however, accomplish your goals without a continuing dedication to hard work and a continuing devotion to duty. Like the Latin School alumni of the past, you must be willing to stand up and be counted upon whenever the need arises. Every freedom, every right and every privilege comes with a corresponding price and duty without which they cannot be enjoyed. As graduates you have earned the recognition and respect of those who have preceded you. Recognize that with maturity comes responsibility. I ask that you work zealously to ensure that your alma mater continue as a viable institution of learning. Your ongoing support is necessary if we are to provide your successors with the same opportunities that you have received. Be loyal to Boston Latin School, aid her in every way, make her cause your cause. Be ever mindful of the debt you owe your teachers, parents, and the good people of the city of Boston who made it possible for you to attend and succeed at this venerable institution. I am extremely proud of this class for you have, I believe, tremendous potential for future academic and personal success. I can only hope that you will develop and fulfill your potential in a constructive, useful, and caring manner. We all look forward to sharing and enjoying your future accomplishments and successes. Horace admonishes all of us to keep a level head when things are difficult. As we enter the twenty-first century, we are once again reminded of the relevancy of these words. May you experience happiness and joy in the years that follow. May God bless you all.

Just as the students of the 1980s are learning to live in a world of global communication, so the students of the 1990s are learning to live in a world of global communication. The students of the 1990s are learning to live in a world of global communication. An account of these new global communication is given on the next pages.

Statement of Philosophy

“Boston Latin School is a six-year college preparatory school which provides a rigorous academic program in the classical tradition and which fosters the pursuit of excellence. The school welcomes and serves a culturally and economically diverse population drawn from every section of the city and has long produced leaders for the community and the nation.

Recognizing the importance of fostering the development of the whole person — the intellect, body, spirit, social, and moral capacities — Boston Latin School maintains a balance between the traditional and the modern. The study of ancient and modern cultures, languages, literature, art, music, history, and institutions ensures exposure to the ideas and values which have shaped Western civilization. The study of mathematics and science provides the basis for an understanding of the physical world and modern technologies. Physical and health education help maintain a sound mind and body. These required studies, taken together, are intended to establish a sense of self-worth, develop a measure of self-confidence, inspire a love for learning, and provide the tools needed to pursue further knowledge and understanding in college and throughout life.

Varied extra-curricular activities provide opportunities for pursuing intellectual, social, and athletic goals in loosely-defined groups or organized teams. Student support services facilitate adjustment to aspects of school or community life, and assist in the selection of courses and in the college application process.

er ends but also as a worthwhile goal in itself.”

THANKSGIVING

The team gathers before the game.

The game has begun and the team steps to the line of scrimmage.

The defense swarms, stuffing English early.

An injury on the way.

Wolfpack, Terriers, close enough. Either way, Latin has a big lead as halftime approaches.

WINNING GAME

The crowd and the band enjoy the rout . . .

The defense continues to shut down the feeble Blue.

Quarterback Billy O'Donovan consults with the coach before another score.

Victory! Once again, Latin beats English High in the annual fall classic. This time the season finale ended in a crushing rout. The Blue was BOMBED!

RES ATHLETICAE

Here we see members of the 1915 Varsity basketball team, certainly a bit different than the current editions. Check out the boys' and girls' basketball teams, and the other teams that make up the Latin School's time-honored Varsity athletics programs, in "Res Athleticae."

Marcus and Zach take a much-needed breather after intense play on the field. The Patriots maintained a high level of intensity throughout the fall on its way to a successful season.

Defense was the name of the game for this year's football team. As the team secured its first winning season in five years, the defense registered six shut-outs. Leading the way were co-captains Jeff Dinisco, Karanja Smith and junior James Kirnon. Lloyd Nugent, John Adams, Pat Duggan, Alex Brauer and Greg Davis also helped to crush the opposition. Only one disappointing loss prevented the Wolfpack from being the Dual County League champion. However, 1992 marked the return of the mighty Wolfpack.

GIRLS SOCCER

Seniors Michelle McCleary, Pam Fitzgibbon, Jessica Pepp, Jenna Hannon, Sara Corsaro, Emily Sweeney, Kim Atkinson, Kelly Sheets, and Christine O'Driscoll.

On the left, Pam and Michelle warm up with the Funky Chicken. Above, Jessica lifts a free kick over the opponent's defensive wall. These three seniors have logged several years on the girls' soccer team.

The girls' soccer team completed yet another season of nuttiness, laughter, ejections, and concussions in the fall of '92, finishing up with an 0-16 record. Standouts included All-League selection Pam Fitzgibbon, goalkeeper Michelle McCleary, and Emily Sweeney who filled in for Michelle when the keeper suffered her third concussion in a Latin uniform.

Sara laces up before the game . . .

. . . then joins in the chase.

BOYS SOCCER

The boys' soccer team finished a 12-2 season strongly with a 2-2 record in its final five games. A 2-0 upset shutout of Bedford and a 0-0 tie with Acton-Boxboro, a state tournament team, highlighted the year. The team was led by senior tri-captains John Gorham, Dave O'Donovan, and Dave Scharfenberg.

Seniors Michael McManus, Bob Jones, Lawrence Spezzano, Demian Bigelow, and Tai Nguyen.

In 1992, the boys' cross country team enjoyed its best season in years. The team ended the fall with a 5-3 mark to show for its efforts, and finished third at the league championship. Leading the team were outstanding seniors Demian Bigelow and Lawrence Spezzano. The girls also enjoyed a good fall season, as seniors Kelly Stepno and Linette Joyce set the pace.

Chillin' on the track.

Kelly leads the pack.

The 1992 girls' swim team put together a solid season. Under the watchful eye of the coaching staff — head coach Mr. Conley and the new assistant coach, Ms. Mooney — the team developed into a powerful unit of 56 members. Captains Kathy Stanton, Courtney Dahill, and Maureen O'Keefe led the team to a 7-6 record.

Artesani also contributed to the team's 10-3-1 record, which allowed the team to qualify for the state tournament. Congratulations are in order to Brian Lavoie who was the leading qualifier in the Division 1 North section.

GIRLS VOLLEYBALL

Captains Janet Van and See Yee led the girls' volleyball team to co-champion status in the Dual County League. Under the guidance of coach Chris Troiani, the team reached great heights with key tournament victories over Brockton and second seed O'Bryant.

Billy Hubbard, the Dual County League MVP, was a wall in the nets.

This year will undoubtedly go down as one of the best in the hockey team's history. The team relied on its talent and experience to bring home the Dual County League championship. Next, with seven All-League selections on board (including the League MVP, Billy Hubbard), the Wolfpack went as far as the Eastern Massachusetts State Semi-Finals, where it lost to Gloucester, the eventual state champion.

D.C.L. All-Star and Athlete of the Year Jeff DiNisco mans the point.

Coach Coleman kept a veteran's eye over the team.

Team unity was a big key to success this year. Here, Dinisco, Cahill, Woods and Davis get it together after a score.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

The boys' basketball team put together a great season under the guidance of Coach Vini Milli, who presided over the team for the last time this year after a great run at the helm. A solid group of seniors and a couple of talented underclassmen carried the team to a 12-8 record and a berth in the state tournament.

Seniors Emmet Gaffney, Derek Markwarth, Al O'Donovan, John Gorham, Bob Steele, and Doug Walsh

The 1992-1993 season was the most successful season the boys' indoor track team has had in several years. Several outstanding individuals combined their efforts, allowing the team to earn a record of 6-2. And after the season, the boys finished a close second at the DCL Championship. Outstanding members included Bing Guerin, Ian Hoag, Demian Bigelow, Saul Merejo, Mark Stearns, and Tai Nguyen.

BOYS SWIMMING

Seniors Rob Breitman, Brian Bernner, Chris Merullo, Brian Mullin, Matt McAuliffe, and Mark Chardavoyne (not pictured).

The boys' swim team, led by tri-captains Matt McAuliffe, Chris Merullo, and Brian Mullin, finished off the season with a 5-5 record — Latin's best in recorded history. The monumental improvements of Captain Mullin and sophomores John Fitzgerald and Jason Serino led to the fantastic season. Also adding to the success of the team was new swimmer and valued team member Mark Chardavoyne. Seven members of the team were sent to the sectionals; the three captains, John Fitzgerald, Jason Serino, Myron Allukian, and Mark Chardavoyne. Several members of the team were invited to the States; Brian Mullin and Matt McAuliffe swam in individual events; Brian Mullin, Matt McAuliffe, Mark Chardavoyne, and Jason Serino participated in a relay event.

BOYS WRESTLING

Seniors Lloyd Nugent, Ra-mu Almahdi, Matt Walsh, and Mark Peters.

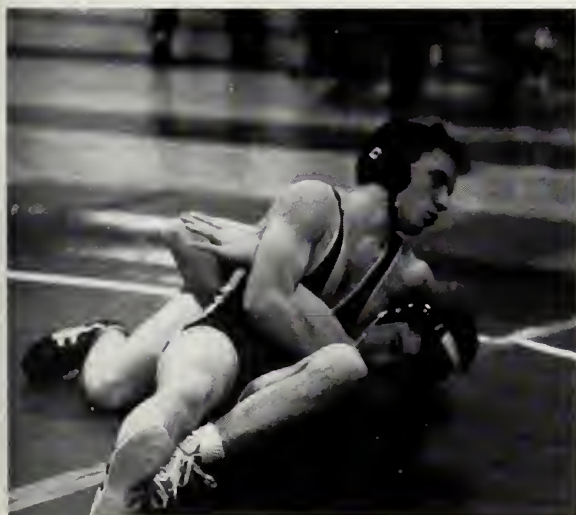

After the departure of long-time coach Ed Smith just prior to the season's beginning, the wrestling team appeared headed for a difficult year. However, the arrivals of NCAA All American Mark Banks as head coach, and New England Champion Kris Meaux as assistant coach rescued the program. Their aggressive recruiting resulted in one of the largest squads in recent history. Although the team began the season slowly because of its inexperience, it rallied behind the pins of captains Lloyd Nugent, Mark Peters, and Matt Walsh in the first tri-meet to upend rivals Catholic Memorial and Lexington, and things began to turn around.

The team started slowly when the offense sputtered. But seniors Mark Chardavoyne, Bob Jones, and Kevin Finn rallied the troops, and the season ended successfully. Along with the revival of the bat, consistent pitching throughout the season (due largely to the tremendous performance of underclassman John Hauck, who assembled an 8-2 record) brought the team a 12-8 record and a berth in the state tournament. There, Latin was able to take a first round game from Arlington.

BOYS TENNIS

Inspired by calls of "We Hate Tennis" and "Let's light this candle," the boys' tennis team played some competitive tennis this year against the powerhouses of the Dual County League, but was unable to win a meet. Leading the team in the 1993 campaign was a group of six seniors, five of whom had returned after play in previous years.

ORDINATES
SCHOLASTICAE

Student clubs, organizations, and publications have been an intricate part of the Latin School since its founding in 1630. One of the longest-running student institutions has been the Latin School Register. Pictured above is the staff of the 1888-1889 Register. Members of the 1992-1993 Register staff, as well as members of the many other Latin School clubs, are pictured in the following pages.

Latesha gave blood today . . . Eight times!

After a tiring day . . .

. . . a wild night!

Lloyd?

Dan? Hubba hubba!

Hey Jason! Get your feet out of our faces!

I'm wicked sorry. Hey little girl, want a cookie?

Ummm . . . no.

I don't know about this, man.

Hey, it's down with us!

Tuck me in?

Pizza, anyone?

Spanish royalty

We are inseparable when we are together! We are incomparable when we are apart!

Chung and Maria — how cuuuuuuuute

How . . . ironic?

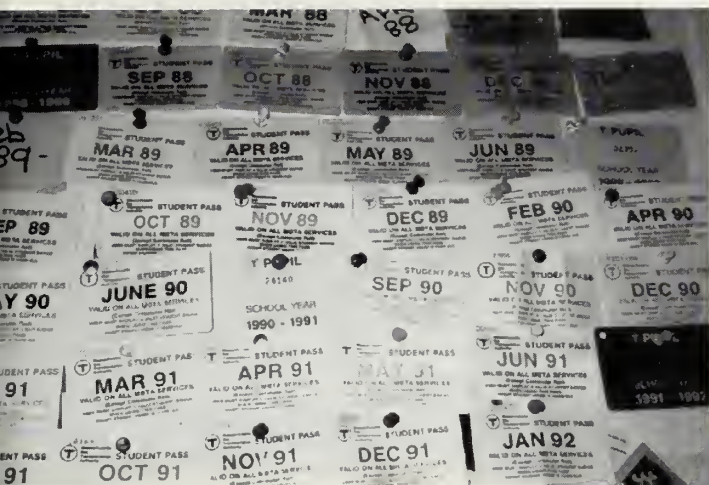

Deep thoughts, by Nils Olsson

Always

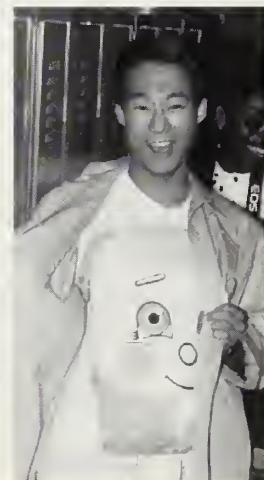

From the first years . . .

. . . to the last — it's a G thang!

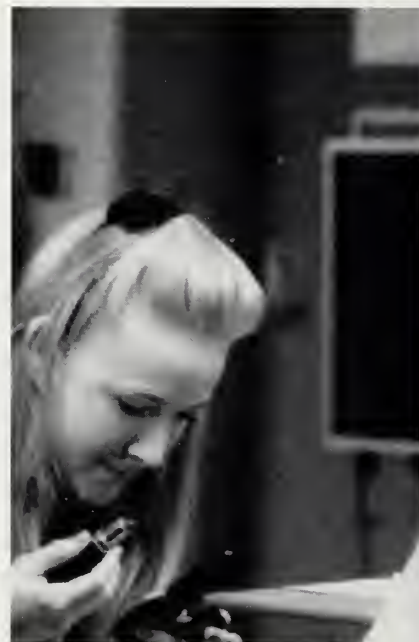

Doing the lounge thing

Dynamic Duo

Comfortable?

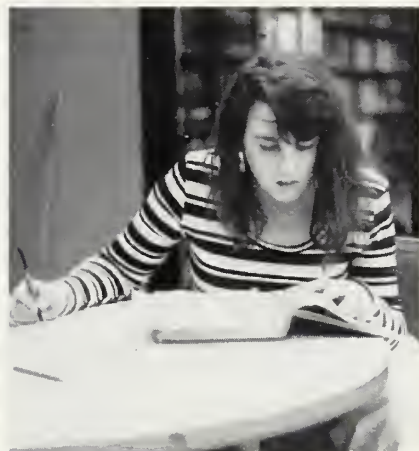

A typical day at school . . . for Kelley.

Oh my darling, I've waited so long for this moment!

Leroy, you in there?

"Let me tell you something, gang . . ."

Don't tell me — let me guess!

Wait! Wait! I'm getting something!

Me too!

You guys are wicked silly.

We are never silly.

"Hey Davith, I think there'th thoup over here! I think it'th beef thtew!"

A rare moment of relaxation for Miss Pepp

Lloyd wonders, "Why is there a hand growing out of Kelly's neck?"

Huh?

I'll get you, my pretty — and your little dog too!

Oh stop, Jen, we all know it's you.

Chill, Alex, this is lounge.

My darling!

Jungle Fever? No! Latin football!

Pat and Tom are very good . . . friends.

It MUST be Halloween.

Something to be frightened of — no, we mean Sean.

First prize for cute

Confident? yes!

Six years at BLS did strange things to Nat

Feel my magic wand!

TWO TRIPS

Latin men chill on the beach.

Meanwhile, in Virginia Beach ...

The Ned-Ted Joke

There were two horses — Ned and Ted — and they had grown-up together, as friends, in the same stable. Both became professional race horses and continued to be great friends. Eventually, their careers came to a close, and it was time for their final day at the track — where they would run together in four races.

And so Ted said to Ned, “Hey Ned, let’s go out even, we’ll split the four races. I’ll win two, and you’ll win two.”

And Ned said, “Alright, sounds good to me.”

And so the two headed for the track, and soon the gun sounded for the first race. The lead changed hands: Ned, Ted, Ned, Ted, Ned, Ted, Ned by a nose! The crowd went wild, “Ned! Ned! Ned!” Ned was pumped, “Woo-hoo, alright.”

The gun sounded for the second race. Ned, Ted, Ned, Ted, Ned, Ted, Ned by a nose! “Ned! Ned! Ned!” “Aaaaahh Yaaaah!,” said Ned, and he gave Ted a high hoof. Ned and Ted went back for the third race.

The gun sounded. Ned, Ted, Ned, Ted, Ned, Ted, Ned by a nose! “Ned! Ned! Ned!,” chanted the crowd. But Ted was peeved: “What are you doing man? We had a deal. I can’t believe you did that!” “I’m sorry, I’m sorry,” pleaded Ned, “I let my competitive edge get to me, I swear it won’t happen again!” Ted came around, “Alright, I’ll let it go. We’ve been friends for too long. But don’t let it happen again.” And so they hugged, and headed back for the starting line.

The gun sounded for the fourth and final race. Ned, Ted, Ned, Ted, Ned, Ted, Ned by a nose! “Ned! Ned! Ned!,” chanted the crowd. But Ted was really peeved now, “I can’t believe you! I can’t believe you would sacrifice our friendship just to win a race.” Ned pleaded again, “I’m really sorry, I can’t believe I did it either. Please forgive me!” But Ted wouldn’t listen, and he took off for the stable, keeping his distance from Ned.

The two horses went into separate corners of the stable and did not speak.

Soon a dog walked in and approached Ned, “I can’t believe you Ned! You two have been best friends for life, and you ruined the friendship for a race. You disgust me!”

And Ned said to Ted, “Hey Ted, did you hear that? That dog can talk!”
